Magazines are a part of everyday life. They inform us, guide us, and advise us, as does Birmingham High.

The color and diversity of everyday life at Birmingham is similar to that displayed in magazines such as Us. With such a broad range of subjects in our school, such as language, mathematics, social studies, English, special education, and sports, anyone can find their interests satisfied. Magazines, as well as school, influence what we think, what we feel, how we dress, and what we do with our spare time.

Magazines fit the lifestyle of the people who read them. Fashionites read Vogue and GQ. Jocks read Sports Illustrated and Muscle and Fitness, and intellectuals read Time and Newsweek. Birmingham clubs represent similar ideas. Intellectuals join C.S.F. and the A.P. Club, business students join F.B.L.A., and actors join Thespians. Active Seniors become involved in Knights and Ladies, and people who want to have fun join the Qualifiers or the Frat Pack.

BHS VOGUE

Fashion plays a major role in the world, as it does at Birmingham High. Paris, London, Rome, and New York are all centers of high fashion and new trend-setting outfits. Vogue is one of the many magazines that displays the new styles of today's people. To be socially fashionable at Birmingham, one must wear just the right clothes. From fringed boots and dangling earrings to cut-off sweats and torn Levis, trends are constantly changing. It's often difficult for your wardrobe to remain up-to-date, especially at Birmingham High.

YEARLY

What did the students at Birmingham High think about in 1987? We questioned members of the student body and faculty, and here are some of the surprising things they said:

Khashy Dowlatshahi, Senior: "Teachers should be paid more. They really do a lot for the school." "One time, I got stopped on Ventura Blvd. I had been speeding. I tried to argue the ticket, but I got it anyway. The actual speed that I had been going - about 98 m.p.h."

Su Chung, Freshman: "I want to change some of the teachers at our school. Some are too tough, while others are too easy. And the cafeteria food is like junk food — too expensive." "I don't want any kids. They are brats, and I don't want to change diapers."

Tricia Ornelas, Senior: "After I get married I won't be having kids. I babysat too much as a teenager." "Divorce is the national pastime - everyone's doing it". "I don't want to look too far ahead. My biggest worry is about the problems with the arms' race."

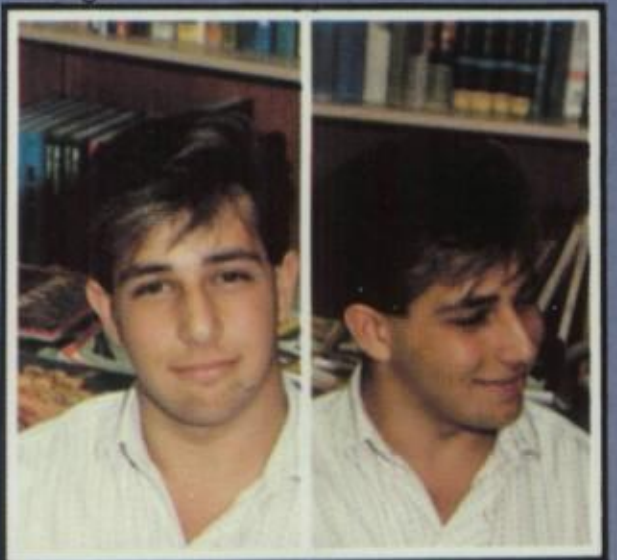

Christine Kessler, Junior: "After high school, I plan to major in underwater basketweaving and photography and teach it to left-handed blind people.

I'll lead a wasteful life, enjoy myself, and eventually marry and adopt all the left-handed hairless monkeys on Earth.

Derek Cunningham, Senior: "If you take pride in the way you look, and you like the way you feel, then people will respect you and you can be a success." "I'm not afraid of the future, as long as we don't have a war and people stop taking all of these stupid drugs."

Brian Alexander, Senior: "I want to make longer lunch periods here and give open lunch passes for 10-12th grade. The tardy policy we have now is totally insane. Being tardy is a part of life. Divorce is also a part of life; you really can't foresee the future of any marriage. Not all marriages can last forever."

Kikanza Ramsey, Senior: "My ethnic background makes it easier for me to get into college. I don't like that. I also don't approve of divorce. I really believe in '... 'til death do us part.' However, it's the national craze; many people are doing it."

David Rice, Senior: "Most of the teachers are cool. Our security staff is in need of reorganization; they really overdo the police stuff." "I hope to go to U.C.L.A. and major in Computer Engineering. I want to do as much as I can to improve our society." "Divorce stinks; you should live together to see if you really love the girl and if you get along under the same roof." "I am aware of my friends' idiosyncracies as well as my own. Like when I was five years old, I gave my dog green Kool-aid. Later, when I began to play soccer, I did a bicycle kick and broke my arm."

Teddy Yu, Senior: "There should be more togetherness. So many of the students stay in their own groups and don't get to know other people." "It is important to have a job. You need a foundation in your life, and money is the basis of our society." "I would love to be in Hawaii. The beach, the palm trees, the women. My kind of life." "I used to go in our backyard and build little campfires out of twigs." "I enjoy running; it gives me a feeling of total freedom and power." "I hope to earn lots of money as a pediatrician and retire to my 50 ft. yacht and all-female servant staff. I hope the world survives our stupidity."

Nicole Burke, Senior: "I want to take the classes for my major in college, not all of these stupid, unnecessary classes, teaching me things I'll never use. There should be a different way of getting classes, and they should find another way of relieving overcrowding besides bussing. The administration should relax a little." "I plan to party until I'm 30, then I'll settle down. My main priority in life is to have a good time." "If people, over a long period of time, change and go in different directions, then maybe they should get a divorce."

Carol Spector, teacher: "I had a really early curfew. When I did things my parents wouldn't like, I did it without telling them." "The students are like my kids. I would love to have unlimited resources to take my government kids on a trip to Washington, D.C. I think I relate well with my students because I deal with them as people, as individuals." "In my high school (Marshall High), it was more unified, but a little smaller. We here at Birmingham are very separate. When I was in high school, I got in trouble with my history teacher for not saluting the flag because I didn't like the Vietnam War. But I had the right not to, and the students supported me. I'm a very independent woman."

SPEAK OUT

BHS MOTOR TREND

Magazines reflect the changing society in which we live. They make us aware of today's issues which will change us, anger us, or make us smile. Most of the news is bad news: wars, politics, and controversial social issues. However, we must not forget the good times: the births, successes, and rescues. At Birmingham, the good times are also a part of life, such as the dances, the sports' victories, and, of course, graduation.

Magazines are periodicals that record the events of our changing lives. They can be read anytime and anywhere. Magazines inform us of news, opinions, facts, fashions, and trends. Just as the Tomahawk shows us the pictures of Birmingham, magazines show us the pictures of life.

MUSTANG GT

PEP RALLY

Spirit is an important part of every interesting magazine. One reads a magazine article to get into a mood. Birmingham High has its own way to get you "in the mood": the Pep Rally! A time to get in the spirit and energy of the game. The Birmingham Braves always look forward to watching the enthusiastic Yell Leaders and Song Leaders dance and jump at nutrition. The Senior and Junior Class Cheerleaders expertly perform their "spiritually invigorating" dance routines every time. Drill Team is always in synchronicity with the mood of the crowd. Excitement builds even higher as the Commissioner of Spirit, Amy Goldberg, introduces the various powerhouses on our sports teams. Throughout this entire hard-hitting event Birmingham's Student Body sees that they play a major role in the ongoing support of sports in the San Fernando Valley. GO BRAVES!

The ultimate spirit entertainers are the Senior Class Cheerleaders. They tackle the job of promoting the Senior Class and school spirit with ease. These women invigorate sport events and participate in a wide range of school and social services. The Senior Class Cheerleaders are a tightly organized young group of vivacious women. # FALL SR. COUNCIL

Senior Council is the student group that sees to the success of all of the Senior Class events. They make sure that all of the Seniors have a fun and exciting final year in high school. Senior Council had the difficult responsibilities of organizing Grad Night, the Prom, and fund raisers designed to help students finance the cost of these events. They also enjoyed successful participation in Homecoming, Octoberfest, and the Victory Dances. Some of the other Senior activities included the Senior Dinner, the faculty softball game, the Talent/Fashion Show, and Powder-Puff football games.

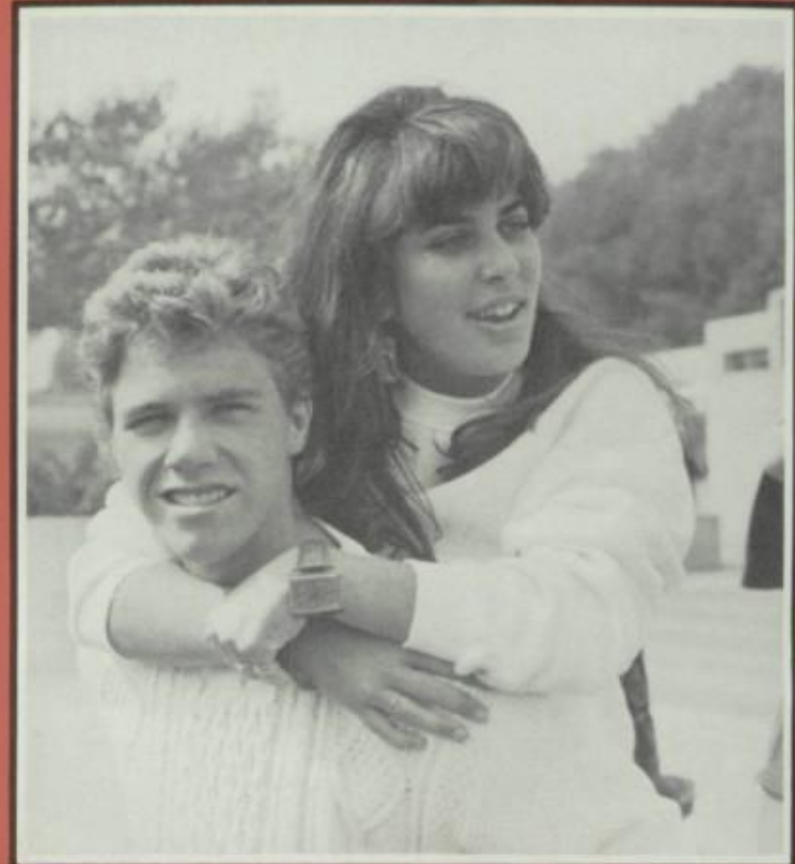

Under the guidance of Mr. Bennett, the sponsor, President Jeff Greenbaum, Vice President Jeff Rosenfield, Secretary Nicole Reed, Treasurer Jen Simon, and Historian Matt Singer have provided the Senior Class with an outstanding year to remember.

FALL KNIGHTS AND LADIES

One big happy family.

When you think of active, important, and fun-loving, what group of people are you describing?
Knights and Ladies.

Knights and Ladies is the fundamental 12th grade honor and service organization of Birmingham High School. As such, they are the official hosts and hostesses of school and social activities. Knights and Ladies develop the theme and organize all of the events related to Homecoming, including the sold-out Homecoming Dance, Parade, and the selection of the Homecoming Queen. Other functions where Knights and Ladies perform with skill and perfection are at Birmingham athletic events, musical performances, tournaments, open house, plays, and carnivals.

Even more important is the feeling of unity and support that each and every member of Knights and Ladies give to each. They respect one another and try to be as helpful as possible.

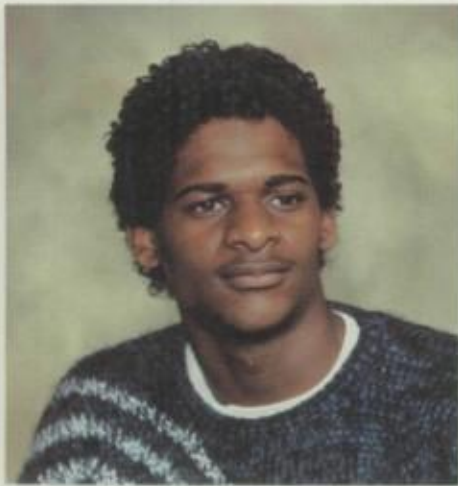

Others can only try to be the best. However, life at Birmingham could never be as exciting as it is without the Knights and Ladies. Here's to you!

PROM NIGHT '87

The Beverly Hilton, Beverly Hills, California, May 1, 1987. An event that will forever remain in the memories of over seven hundred people in Southern California.

It is: the Birmingham High School Senior Prom.

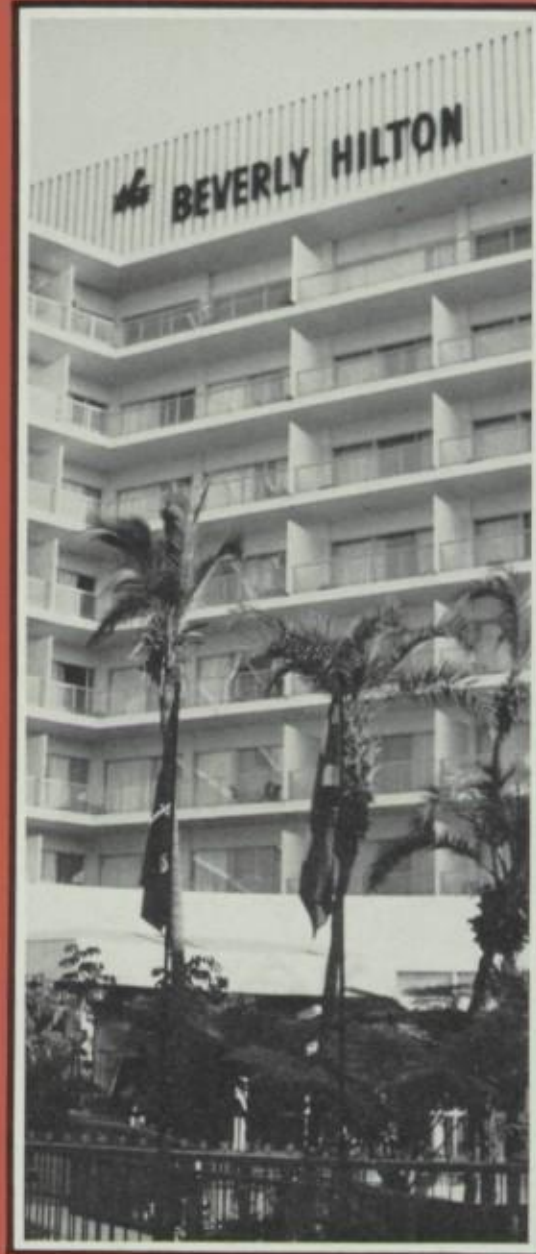

This year's Prom, the most magnificent and wonderfully successful in Birmingham's history, caught the Southland by storm. The night rocked with the hot sounds of 1987, like Janet Jackson and Genesis, and cuddled to the romantic ballads of Peter Cetera and Journey. The site of the Prom was the Hilton's International Ballroom; this room contained the entire Graduating Class, their guests, the "dry" bar, and the dancers. The Prom started at around 7 p.m., and was supposed to wind down at about 1 a.m., but the partying continued well into the early hours of the morning. The "dry" bar, in the interests of safe driving, served only a wide variety of soft drinks; however, no one even noticed as they got "high" on life. After the delicious chicken dinner, hyperactive teenagers danced through the soles of their shoes in a frenzied ritual of supernatural proportions.

When the bids went on sale early in the Spring semester, students were gasping for breath at the exorbitant price of $95 per couple. But the price was worth the fun.

The success of the Prom made this final salute to the Senior Graduating Class an experience they will remember forever. Memories of glamorous Prom dresses, stylish tuxedos, and prestigious limosines will permeate the thoughts of all seniors in the years to come. No one will ever forget the Prom of the Class of 1987. Congratulations and Good Luck!

Pep Rally enjoyed by all.

"OK, who dropped it?", says Mr. O'Rear

Impact Rally says, "No to drugs".

One of the most memorable events of the year, Homecoming '86, was a tremendous success! Many of Birmingham's alumni came back to cheer on their alma mater and participate in the half-time festivities. The successful Homecoming drew the largest crowd for any football game in 1986.

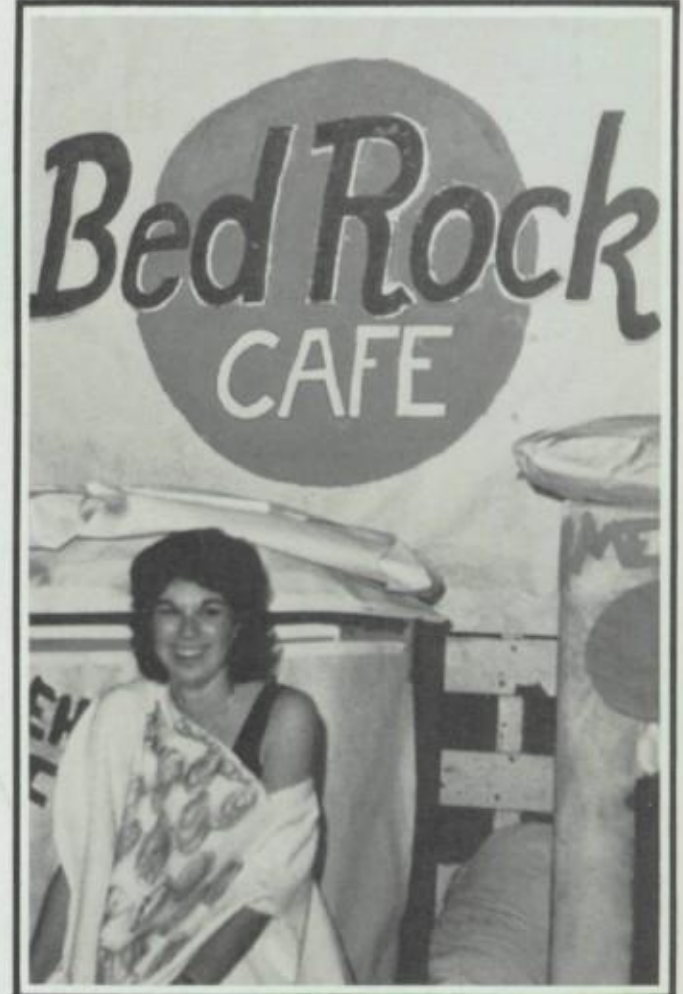

This year's theme, "As Time Goes By", brought out some of the most ingenious and beautiful floats to ever parade in Tom Bradley Stadium. Both the Braves and the Taft Toreadors were stunned as the student body clubs and organizations displayed original, spirited, humorous, creative, talented, colorful, and unique masterpieces between the B and Varsity football games.

Many of the clubs were honored with prestigious awards. Some of them were: the Theme Award to Freshmen Council; the Dad's Club Award to Leadership; the Faculty Award to the A.P./C.S.F. float; the International Award to Knights and Ladies; the Most Unique Award to Y-Council; and the Most Inspirational Award to the Korean Club.

PARADE

To end a great week of Homecoming, Birmingham students gathered in the Multi-Purpose Room for the Homecoming 1986 Dance. This year's theme, "As Time Goes By . . .", was a mere reminder of how valuable our time at Birmingham really is. We can look back on years of happiness, hard work, good friendships, and captured moments that will last a lifetime.

Inside, students talked with one another, danced, got pictures taken with their dates, and enjoyed looking at old Birmingham yearbooks, some from the 1960's. As the evening drew to an end, Anne-Marie Kaufman was crowned Homecoming Queen 1986 by Knights President Jamie Bennett. Her court included Staci Rios, Michelle Dominguez, Alma Aguirre, and Ruzanna Adzynian. Also represented were the underclass Princesses: Audra Simon (11th grade), Tricia Sherk (10th grade), and Alana Simon (9th grade).

The Homecoming Dance was a great success because of all the caring students at Birmingham. They make our high school experiences memorable, entertaining, and fun. Thank you for your support.

VICE-VERSA DANCE

Every year, there comes an event that forces the girls to swallow their pride and ask that secretly-admired guy in a hushed, quiet voice, (gulp) "Hey, would you go to the Vice-Versa with me?"

Student Council sponsored this year's extravagant, Plain Wrap Vice-Versa Dance on March 13, 1987. Disc Jockey Joe Brosta played everyone's favorite tunes and even some personal requests. Sophomore Council provided snacks for those who were hungry and, along with members of Freshmen Council, worked at the coat-check station and helped to organize refreshments in the teachers' cafeteria.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement of "Most Desirable Male." The boys were nominated in the student body clubs and their pictures were posted in the Main Office. After the students voted Thursday, the votes were tallied. The winners were: Jason Shapiro (9th grade), Todd Cobin (10th grade), Greg Schell (11th grade), and Paul Reavlin (12th grade).

OCTOBERFEST

Squires and Principals sponsor a rowdy pie throwing contest.

Korean Club rib-steak out.

On October 17, 1986, Birmingham High School enjoyed its second annual Octoberfest in the main quad. This exciting lunchtime event brought out imaginative booth ideas from many different student organization, such as Knight and Ladies, F.B.L.A., Senior Council, Students Council, the Yell and Song Leaders, and many other Y-Council clubs. The Korean Club raised the most money, $145.50, with their special recipe "Gal-Bee" ribs. The festivities ranged from delicious homebaked goods and soft drinks to challenging games like throwing pies at your favorite Squires and Principals and wind-up boat races by the Swim team. It was a fun-filled day for all!

POWDER PUFF

Tuesday, March 10. Comfortable weather, high near 70. Light, cool wind from the east. The stands fill with hungry Seniors, Juniors, and other underclassmen. Suddenly, the players hit the field.

But wait! They're . . . girls?

Yes! It's Powder Puff football!

The excitement builds as the kickoff is received by the Seniors, and ecstasy when the first play of the game is a hard run by Tenita Bennett to the end zone. The Seniors take an early lead, finally winning by a score of 21-0, with Cheryl Howard and Shagarro Lattin also running for touchdowns. They continued to pound (figuratively speaking) the Junior girls through their strong defense, forcing an interception and several fumbles. As girls were falling on each other, the audience was going wild with emotion. Amazingly, the game was played with professional skill and tactics. Obviously the Senior women are harder hitting and quite prepared to attack (literally speaking) the real world.

Adding to the amusement were the cheerleading guys, hilariously trying to perform simple dancing steps and cheers. The Juniors appeared to be much more spirited because of the large number of guys cheering for their team. But the Seniors proved once again that they are the champions of Birmingham High!

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

More cream please, Mrs. Korchien.

Good pancakes, huh Teri?

The Pancake Breakfast has become a tradition here at Birmingham. The BHS Dad's Club-sponsored event brings senior citizens, students, faculty, family, and friends together. The day is special and unique to all of us here at Birmingham. All funds raised from the event are put right back into school. All who ate at the breakfast were entertained by the talented groups of BHS: the drama class, Dance Production, cheerleaders, and the marching band.

Enjoying the meal?

The Birmingham High Band is more powerful than ever. The 35 members played at all of this year's football games and pep rallies. This was the first time in 5 years that the Band participated in the Los Angeles Unified School District's Preliminary Band Competition. Our mighty Band took 8th place in the competition. Next season they plan to participate again.

The Band director, Mr. Schram, loves his band. "I'm pleased at their performances despite their headresses falling in their faces." However, next year they'll have new uniforms, and their goal for the spring season is to recruit more talented musicians. Birmingham looks forward to more of the Band's outstanding medlies!

DRILL TEAM

The 1987 Birmingham High School Drill Team, sponsored by Ms. Haskin, has amazed the entire student body with its "awesome, totally incredible" displays of talent and style. They have highlighted this seasons' sports events with creative performances. The Drill Team trained and practiced for long hours during the summer and after-school to reach the high level of perfection that they constantly set for themselves. The Drill Team always has new and exciting routines, professionally led by co-captains Michele Dominguez and Veronica Griffin. This year, they participated in the All-City Band and Drill Team Competition. The Drill Team's exceptional shows at Pep Rallies made the students that much more excited about sports and really aroused the fervent support that helps Birmingham be the best at what it does-win BIG!

Student speakers along with Ms. Majeski.

On January 7, 1987, the Impact Assembly received an incredible emotional response from the students of Birmingham High School. The Substance Abuse Program will now be in action at this school, along with its caring and support.

The assembly began with Ms. Mary Farrel demonstrating her concern with the adolescent drug problem. "In our country, there is a serious problem ... drugs. Do you know what you're doing to yourself, or to someone else?" stressed Ms. Farrel. She referred to the tragedy of Sharon Barnett, a Birmingham student, who was killed by a drunk driver. Susie Orman concluded the mourning with a poignant poem that she had written for her close friend.

Paul Miles, member of the Impact Program for five years, proceeded to speak of how "uncool" drugs are, and introduced several students of Birmingham High who had been on drugs. These "clean" students had had counseling, or were presently in therapy. Among these students were Dana Davies, Cliff Cook, Jenny Dobring, Angel Martinez, Benson Reyes, and John Foti.

It took a great deal of courage for these students to blatantly reveal such intense feelings. Many were in rehabilitation centers. Their stories were common; they all became someone, under the influence of drugs, that they truly were not. They had lost touch with their families and friends, and had gained enemies. Yet most students had success stories, with so many months or years sobriety.

Speakers encouraged students to talk to counselors or teachers about personal and/or drug-related problems. Several confidential phone numbers were also given out for any student in need of support. Special thanks are given to Mrs. Jacqueline Berz and Ms. Elizabeth Majeski for organizing the program at Birmingham. "Feel free to talk ... please do," concluded Dean Steve Shapiro.

Dr. Emanuel Sandoval

"Commencement — one of the definitions given in the dictionary is to begin, to start. You, the class of 1987 are ready to begin, to start, your adult life. Your years at Birmingham High School have been a preparation for that life. Hopefully, the friendships that you have formed, and the learning experiences that you have shared will remain with you for many years. The Achievers, class of 1987, we salute you. We wish you success in your future endeavors, whether it be in business or study. Your class is complimented on its achievement. Best wishes to you all. Success and happiness."

Mary Farrell

Ms. Mary Farrell
Principal

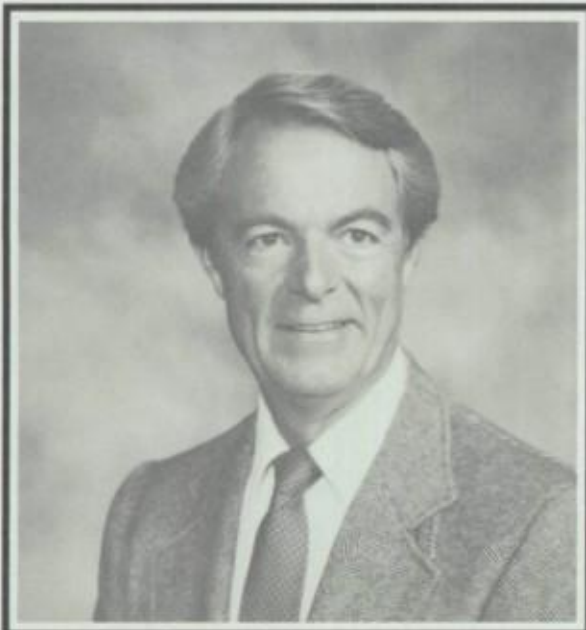

Ms. Farrell congratulating Varsity Volleyball on their win.

Ms. Farrel and Mr. Strain discussing latest tardy sweep.

Mr. William O'Rear
Vice Principal

Mr. William O'Rear, one of our Assistant Principals, has worked at Birmingham High School for three years. He is responsible for supervising several of the different education departments, like English, mathematics, and our new computer department. Mr. O'Rear also supervises the Instructional Program which involves staff development, assisting new teachers, the library, textbooks, and cafeteria area.

Mr. O'Rear faced several problems dealing with Birmingham's overpopulation problem this year. "The population of the school has almost doubled in the past 30 years," he stated. Yet he feels that Ms. Mary Farrell is helping Birmingham to adjust to the crowded campus extremely well.

He stresses the fact that students with good grades and attendance are now being praised with more than a letter home. "This year we gave excellent students free tickets to the play Equus. I hope that this and other means of recognition will encourage more students to work hard and maintain good attendance," said Mr. O'Rear.

Mr. Steven Shapiro
Administrative Dean

Dean Steven Shapiro has worked at Birmingham High School for five and a half years at a variety of jobs. He was a counselor, computer coordinator, Dean of Attendance, Assistant Administrative Dean, and is presently Administrative Dean. He is in charge of security, discipline, safety, parking, attendance, suspensions, and expulsions.

The overpopulation problem at Birmingham has made Dean Shapiro's job more difficult. Even though the number of students at Birmingham has increased drastically, his number of staff members remains the same, resulting in a lot of extra work. Yet that does not hinder his expectation of moving up in the school and some day becoming Principal.

One of Mr. Shapiro's greatest memories of Birmingham is working here during the 1984 Olympic Games. Since the athletes used Birmingham's track for practice, Mr. Shapiro was able to meet several international runners.

"I enjoy working here because of the kids," Dean Shapiro remarked. "They keep me young." One last thing, if Mr. Shapiro's last name was Martin, he would be known as Dean Martin!

Ms. Ruth Walker
Head Counselor

Ms. Ruth Walker, our Head Counselor, has been working for one and half years here at Birmingham High School. She said, "My primary responsibility is to construct a master program that gives each student an opportunity to have a program which maximizes their potential."

The diverse responsibilities of being Head Counselor include handling many individual student problems and making sure that not just the aggressive student receives special attention. Ms. Walker describes BHS as a "unique school," and, so far, "It has been exciting working at Birmingham."

Mrs. Jeri Durham
Vice Principal

Ms. Jeri Durham, our new Assistant Principal, has only been here at Birmingham since October. Before coming here, she has worked as an Administrative Dean at Fremont High, Instructional Advisor in the Region C office, as a college advisor, and also as a teacher.

She believes, in order to be a Vice Principal, "You need to be flexible and like to work with people." She wants the students here at Birmingham to take advantage of the activities it has to offer. Ms. Durham also wants to increase student involvement and participation.

Since Ms. Durham has been here, she has found the students to have "School spirit and energy." She explains her time here as being "Busy and exciting, but mostly fun."

Mr. O'Rear and Ms. Durham honor Ms. Rankel, our school nurse.

SPORTS

Getting back into the win column was the major goal of this year's Varsity Football team. Led by returning Varsity quarterback Kevin Zietz, who passed for 935 yards, the Braves regained the upper hand in the Sunset League with an impressive 6-win, 3-loss record. The Braves did not have to rely completely on its passing game, since they had an equally impressive running game. Moreover, three Braves were able to rush for over 400 yards this year: Vince Tolliver (472 yards), Mike Flores (464 yards), and Marcel Sellers (436 yards). The team was able to boast a total of 2583 yards, with an average of 287 yards per game. Even with the fantastic coaching staff, led by Coach Epstein, the Braves were still unable to defeat Garfield High School in the first round of the playoffs. Although the season is over, anticipation of another fabulous season will be expected next year.

"This year's Bee Football squad has improved tremendously through the season. An outstanding group of kids." This from Coach Wayne Sink. The Bee Football players have amazed the campus of Birmingham High School in their 1986 season. The Bee squad, utilizing the skills of great All-League players like Dan Larsen, Greg Maxwell, Tom Cherney, Sharif Fahim, and Darnell Stringer, and the talents of Coaches Sink and Tucciarone, went on to a 3-win, 1-loss pre-season record against Reseda, Grant, Verdugo Hills, and Narbonne High Schools, and a 3-win, 2-loss regular season record against the other members of the Sunset League: Taft, Canoga Park, Chatsworth, Monroe, and Van Nuys High Schools. Way to go, Braves!

Under the new leadership of Coach Gary Mazziotti, the Birmingham Braves, Cross Country team ran their way to another successful season. The Boys Varsity and Junior Varsity teams were Mid-Valley League Champions again this season. They also were victorious in the City Finals: The Varsity Boys took 3rd place and the J.V. Boys took 6th place. This was the Varsity Boys fourth consecutive League title, with a 4-win, 1-loss record. Jeff Korn, voted Most Valuable Player, was instrumental in this victory. The J.V. Boys also won their fourth consecutive League title, with the help of M.V.P. Glenn Ramirez. Due to ineligibility problems, the Frosh-Soph Boys were held to a 3-win, 2-loss record. Their Most Valuable Player was Brian Gastelum.

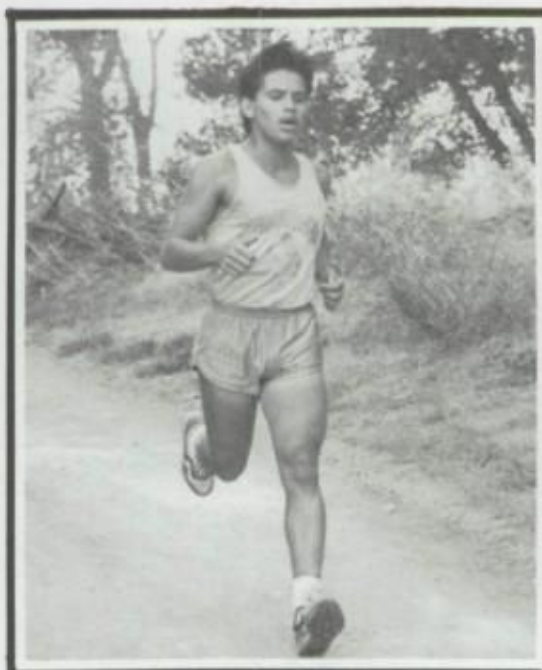

The Varsity Girls team captured 2nd in the Mid-Valley League for the 2nd straight year, with great runners like their M.V.P. Cheri-Lee Segal.

Robin leads the pack.

Top JV runners Jay McDonald and Sal Sapier.

The Birmingham Girls' Tennis team "was very united and supportive of each other. A well-balanced team; our doubles teams were our strongest element," says Coach Sipanzy. The team had a good record this season, going undefeated against El Camino, winning two out of three games against Cleveland and Taft. Because of their outstanding play, the Birmingham Girls' Tennis team won the West Valley League. The Most Valuable Player on the Varsity team was Kathy Lee, and four players made All-League: Dana Hudosh, Tracy Glass, Allison Latt, and Lisa Shapiro. Dana Hudosh and Tracy Glass also were voted the Most Inspirational Players. Adds Coach Sipanzy, "We will only be losing our seniors this year. But most of the team is returning. We had to play a triple round because one of the schools dropped out of the League. The parents of the team members were the most supportive I've ever had. They came to every match and finals."

One of the most exciting sports at Birmingham is G.I.A. volleyball. These women hit hard, think fast, and have overpowered many of their rivals.

According to Coach Dow, the women's volleyball team had a pretty successful year. With a 6-win, 6-loss record, they made it to the playoffs, a very impressive accomplishment. Unfortunately, they lost in the first round of play.

However, congratulations go out to Senior Laurane Aikins, setter and outside hitter, who made All-League 1st team. And congratulations to Helena Lin, middle blocker and hitter, who made All-League 2nd team.

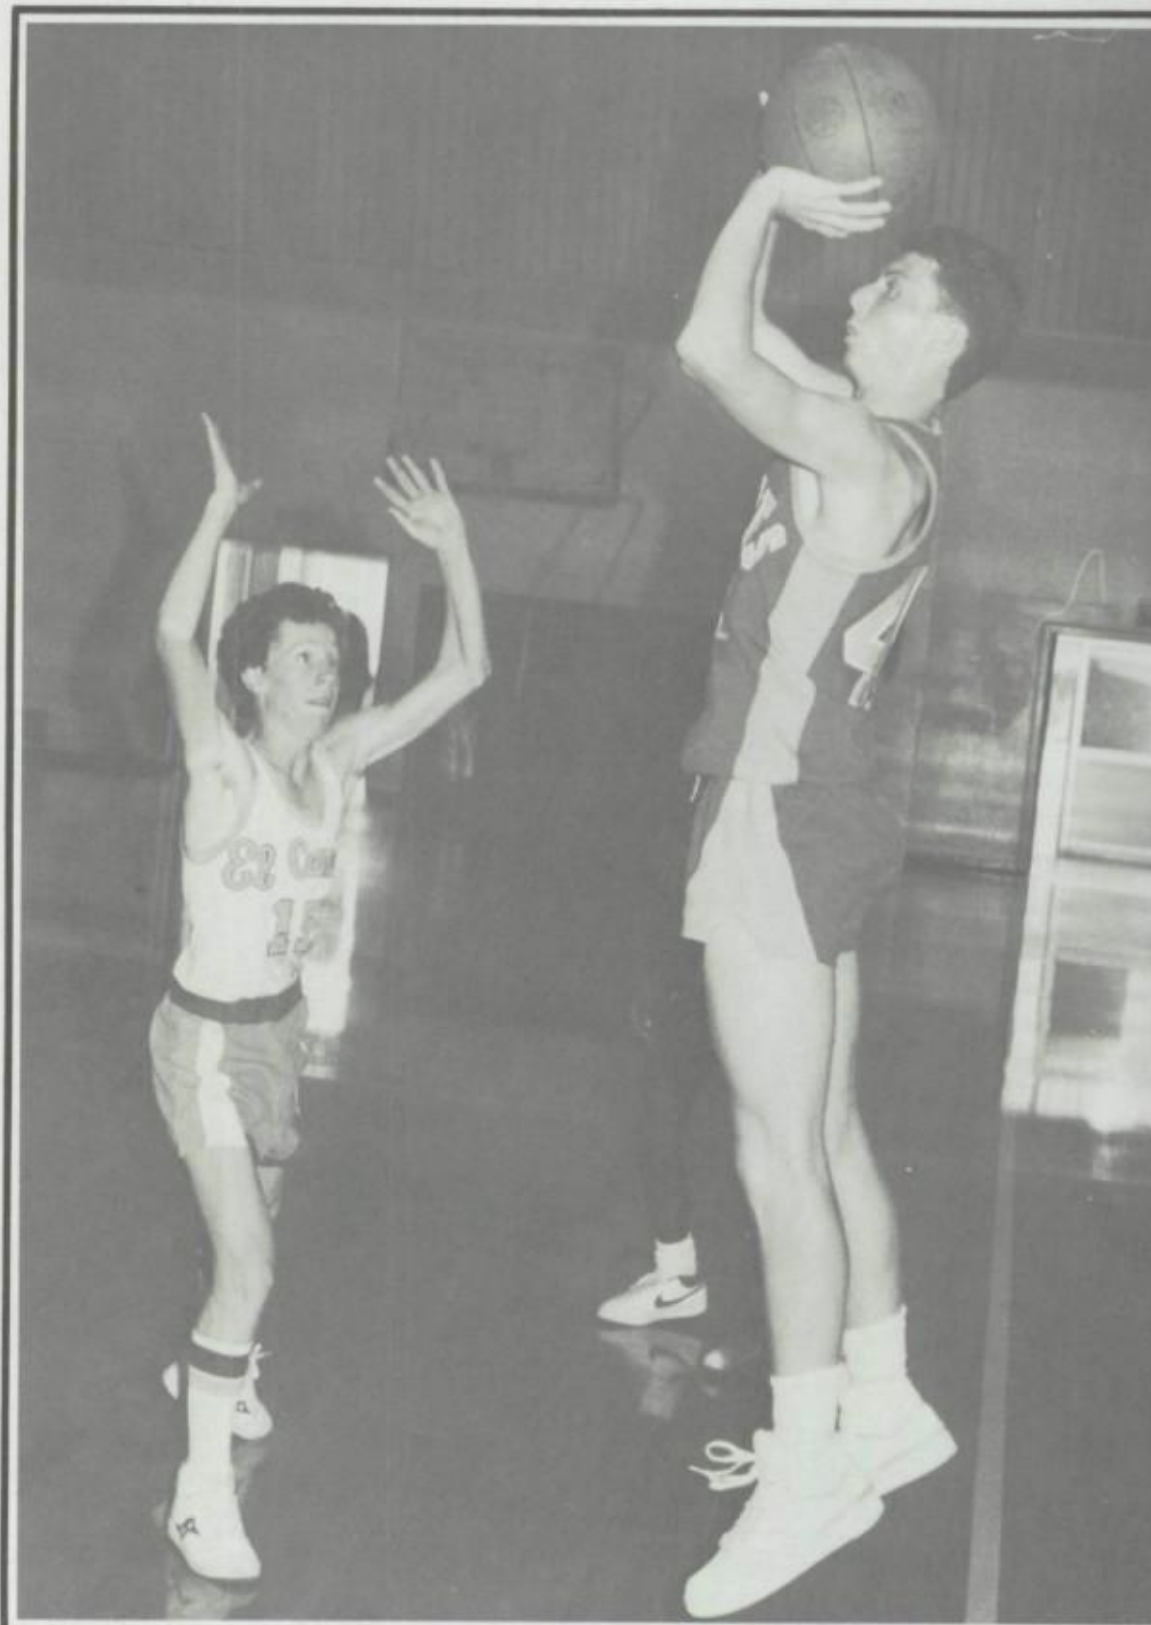

Volleyball is a fast-paced sport, and these women made it fun to watch. Way to go, Braves!

VARSITY SOCCER

Look at Jason's face as he passes the ball!

The Varsity Soccer team astounded Birmingham High with their best season in nine years. The team played with renewed life against old rivals like Kennedy, San Fernando, and Granada Hills High Schools. The team hopes to have an even better season next year, as they anticipate the addition of more quality players. However, five of this year's Varsity team players made All League: Eddie Burns, Chang Suh, and Jeff Rosenfield on the 1st team, Jeff Greenbaum and Michael Burns on the 2nd team. Juan Menjivar, Jason Airale, and Jason Miggas received Honorable Mentions. It is also a great honor for Eddie Burns as he was voted 1st Team All-City Player.

The much-improved soccer team tied Monroe High School for 2nd place in the League. They outperformed last year's Birmingham soccer team, with a 4-win, 3-loss, 3-tie League record, and a 7-win, 3-loss, 3-tie overall record. Coach Albert Fowler, and Coach Weber along with Captain Eddie Burns guided the soccer team to a terrific season of high-powered soccer. Eddie Burns was also voted 1st Team All-City Player.

There's the kick that won the game.

Led by new coach Jeff Halpern, the Birmingham Boys Varsity Basketball team enjoyed their greatest season ever. They dominated the league for most of the season achieving an impressive league record of 9-wins and 1-loss, and an overall record of 22-wins and 3-losses.

The Braves finished first in the Northwest Valley League and received the top ranking in the 3-A playoffs. With incredible wins over Venice, University, and Los Angeles High Schools, the varsity team reached the All-City 3-A Championship game, an accomplishment not seen since 1961. There were great individual efforts by All-City and All-League player Ennera Maxwell, All-League player Keith Owens, and the three other starters: Adam Zuckerman, Charles Johnson, and Damon Buford. Jason Moore, constantly off the bench as 6th man, gave a big boost all year long to the squad. The varsity team not only made it to the finals, but also won the BHS Christmas Basketball Tournament, not won by Birmingham since 1971.

The season ended as the Braves lost to the Granada Hills Highlanders in the 3-A City Championship game at the L.A. Sports Arena. Although the team lost in the championship game, the accomplishments they achieved during the year will not be forgotten. We thank them for making this a very exciting year and bringing Birmingham Basketball back into the spotlight.

Though it was a tough year because of eligibility problems, the team made it all the way to the playoffs, but lost in the first round to Lincoln High. Among the team's leading scores were Amy Rubinroit and Shaggaro Lattin. Coach Jerry Coates looks forward to another winning season next year; however, only three Varsity team members will be returning since the rest of the ladies are Seniors. Their overall record was 12-wins and 8-losses.

Time is a real test of ability. This is a test which Swim Team Coach Nick Rodionoff has consistently excelled at. Expertly guiding his teams to League and City Championships. This past year has been no different than any other as the Braves won the League Championships in all four divisions. With the start of a more intense workout early in the season the Braves got off to a quick start in all their competition. Once again the Varsity Boys free relay team of Matt Ballard, Chris Ballard, Alex Gauna and Patrick Wilson provided inspiration for the entire team leading the entire swim team to another successful season.

Hands over head.

Now, Jeff, how does this work?

Yes, David, the universe is expanding.

Double dutching at lunch.

When the school was opened in the early 1950's, could they have imagined what the world would be like, 33 years later?

Probably not.

However, it has been a year of change and growth here at Birmingham High School, in sunny downtown Van Nuys, California. We have experienced events that have shaken the very foundations of our lives, and we have been forced to look at ourselves and the world in a more realistic light. Happy times, new friends, deep tragedies; we young adults have matured in ways we never thought possible. The students at BHS saw their school criticized by an adult, the outsider Ben Stein, and rallied behind their school with amazing spirit and mutual support. Birmingham changed hands to a new principal, Ms. Mary Farrell, and she helped us to cope with an increase in the student body: 3300 students from all parts of Los Angeles. Several of the top administration officials left, for one reason or another. Mrs. Mindy Puopolo left halfway through the year and gave birth to a happy, healthy baby boy. The missing persons were replaced by new faces like Ms. Jeri Durham, who brought fresh energy to the BHS staff. But Birmingham also had the worst kinds of tragedies. We lost two very special people: Sharon Barnett and Eric Christensen. They were our friends, loved ones who had brightened our days. Birmingham High will miss them and cherish their memories forever.

Registration was the worst mess in recent memory. It took several hours to wait in the lines for the classes you wanted, but all of the classes you wanted were scheduled during the same period! By the end of the day, most of the popular and required classes were closed, causing a thunderous uproar. The College Fair, which included almost 100 of the best colleges and universities from around the country, from Pierce of Princeton, introduced hundreds of students to higher education.

I think one of the funniest developments at Birmingham High in 1986 was the "tardy sweep", a paradox in logic and reasoning. The idea is simple: capture a late student, send him to the Oral Arts Room to be lectured on the reasons to get to class on-time, and then put him in line behind 50 or more students so that he can get a slip of paper to return to his class, which is now almost over anyway. This is supposed to solve the problem of tardiness? Where is the logic in punishing someone for being late by making him more late? We all are aware of the importance of being in class on-time, but what about getting back to the real purpose of going to school — education!

Birmingham sports hit the power swing in 1986-87. The Varsity football team made it to the playoffs, the Varsity basketball team made it to the Championships, playing for huge crowds at the L.A. Sports Arena, and the Varsity soccer squad played its best season in ten years. The Braves got severely wild in the stands this year!

Nevertheless, as this is a headline page, we must deal with headlines in the news. President Ronald Reagan did not fair so well in 1986. He allegedly tried to sell arms to Iran for hostages, but he got caught in "Iran-scam", "Iran-gate", the "Iran-contra affair", or whatever you wish to call it. Not since Watergate has Washington, D.C. shuddered and rocked all the way down to the very foundations of the Constitution. But it showed us that many things go on behind the doors of the White House. Suddenly, names like North, Pointdexter, Regan, and Tower filled the headlines. Through all of the mess, we can be sure of one thing: President Reagan will not get the "Best Actor" Academy Award this year.

Drug abuse was a major issue. The use of "crack" and other hard drugs skyrocketed to epidemic proportions. President Reagan confronted us in a nationally-televised address: "Drug abuse is a repudiation of everything America is. The destructiveness and human wreckage mock our heritage . . ." Birmingham struggled with this question, initiated an Impact program for drug and alcohol abuse for the student body, and argued about voluntary drug testing.

In sports, New York City hit the jackpot, with the Mets winning the World Series, and the Giants winning Super Bowl XXI. Arizona State captured the Rose Bowl from Michigan State, and the America's Cup returned home to America as skipper Dennis Conner and his ship Stars and Stripes beat Australia's Kookaburra III.

The entertainment world was controlled by some of the biggest movies in film history. Top Gun, starring Tom Cruise, controlled the box office for over thirty weeks, but eventually had to share the screen with hits like Aliens and Hanna and Her Sisters. The Grammy Awards proved surprising as Paul Simon's Graceland, which included performances by South African musicians, won for "Best Album". However, hits like Steve Windwood's "Higher Love" and Peter Gabriel's "Sledgehammer" also filled the air with the awesome sounds of Rock and Roll.

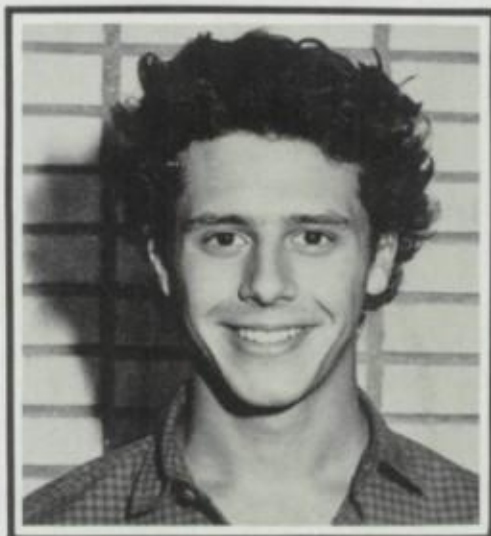

So many things were going on in the rest of the world. Reagan decided to use the strong arm of U.S. Armed Forces and bombed several targets in Libya in retaliation for shootings, kidnappings, and bombings involving American citizens. Nearby, African famine worsened severely, and millions of people starved and died while "defense" weapons continued to build up. South African apartheid, the 1980's civil rights struggle similar to the movement in the U.S. in the 1960's, became an important national concern. Congress tried to impose severe trade sanctions on that country, and many Americans participated in protest marches for those jailed in South Africa, such as Nelson Mandela. In this day and age, the policy of apartheid, keeping blacks and whites apart, is thought by most Americans to be outdated and a violation of human rights. Speaking of coming apart, the Russians initiated one of the largest weenie roasts in history: a nuclear explosion at the Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant. I suppose they'll be reading by the incandescent glow of the countryside for years to come.

There were so many other newsworthy items during the year that I could never cover them all here. Yet one must realize that the year has meant different things to different people. The Statue of Liberty, a guiding light to immigrants entering the United States for 100 years, got a facelift and is now more beautiful and glowing than ever. The A.I.D.S. epidemic continued to grow, forcing advertisers to begin using condom ads in newspapers and on television. And the world lost some of its most talented performers, entertainers, and artists: Danny Kaye, Liberace, Andy Warhol, Robert Preston, and the incredibly talented Cary Grant, who was "... the personification of the self-made man, the sophisticated and urbane ideal of men and women throughout the world."

I must go now. But I leave to those who remain at Birmingham High a few thoughts on the future: "There's a big, wonderful world out there for you. It belongs to you. It's exciting, stimulating, rewarding. Don't cheat yourselves out of this promise." With an education firmly in our minds, there can be no stopping us now.

Health and happiness in your lives forever. - RWL

"The 1986 Fall Student Council, 55 members strong, included some of the most spirited and hard-working students at Birmingham High. Under the watchful eye of the Student Council advisor, Mr. Louis Ramirez, these students helped to plan the wonderful Octoberfest, worked diligently on the fabulous Homecoming, and organized the entertaining Vice-Versa Dance. Student Council also promoted school spirit through many Pep Rallies, Victory Dances, and school competitions.

Historian

"Well, it's not like that, so don't worry about it!"

"By the way, this is a message from Brad Galinson, your Student Body President for the Spring of 1987. My message to you, the Birmingham Braves, is to surge from the depths of your heart with as much school spirit as physically possible. There are those few who, like poisonous bacteria, infect others to miss parts of the magic of high school. "Don't let yourself be swept into the crunches of apathetic lifestyle!" Here is a small story to exemplify the urgency of my brief message."

"There once was a small child who never cared for his high school, never attended any school-sponsored events, and never even got his report cards signed. This meek boy grew up and was accidentally hit and killed by a falling safe. Another, noticeably larger child, spread an aura of high school loyalty, cheered at events, and, of course, reminded his parents to sign each report card. (5 week, 10 week, and 15 week!) This boy matured into a man and lived a long, prosperous life of fine wine and beautiful women."

"You see, a good attitude in high school can make all the difference."

Bradley Galinson
SB President Spring '87

"Also please remember:
The earth can be any shape that you want it to be ..."

Parliamentarians
Steven Glassman and Barbara Baylis

"Imagine a dark night, then a flash of lightning, and the world changes completely. Instead of school each day, you have to work in a labor camp, eight days a week, fourteen hours a day, breaking up rocks. Monster-like lizards drive you like slaves, hissing at you with long, sharp tongues. For five minutes, at around noon, they let you eat a piece of bread and have a trickle of water, which dances on your lips. Then, back to work. Tired and sweaty, you limp home, falling dead to sleep."

P.T.S.A.

P.T.S.A., the nationwide Parent Teacher Student Association, is one of the valuable volunteer groups at Birmingham High. They work for the students, bringing parents, teachers, and the student body together to support each other in helpful programs and community assistance. The P.T.S.A. also makes parents aware of what's going on at BHS and puts community and school board issues to debate. They support extra services for the students and teachers: educational and welfare aid clinics for alcohol and drug abuse and student aid programs, special dinners for teachers, and classroom gifts. Funds to support the programs are obtained through an assortment of activities, such as membership drives and bake sales. Kay Staub, in her role as P.T.S.A. President, leads the team as they offer their time to assist as many Braves as possible.

DAD'S CLUB

The Dad's Club contributed enormous amounts of money to Birmingham High during the 1986-87 school year. Their donations of time towards the Pancake Breakfast and this year's football were invaluable, raising the thousands of dollars needed by various clubs and organizations to buy goods and perform services. The Dad's Club kept the tradition alive at the Birmingham Historical Monument, better known as "Joe's Place". In light of the recent drop in interest rates, membership dues stayed at the same level as last year. The Dad's Club contains faculty, parents, and concerned members of the community. Scholarship funds, library supplies, assistance at athletic events, computers, and other useful items are presented to the school by Dad's Club. Neil Altman continued to command this essential life force of Birmingham High.

ACADEMIC COUNCIL

The Academic Council has come to the forefront of Birmingham life to address curriculum concerns. The parents and members of the council advise and make recommendations for change on the present curriculum and makes suggestions for new policies. The faculty, parents, and students combine their efforts to improve the education of the student body. Academic Council has succeeded in adding Honors-level chemistry and Spanish classes, introducing an S.A.T. Preparation Class, and broadening the physics program. They coordinated the College Fair, along with co-sponsors C.S.F. and A.P. Club. Mr. Patrick Earley, President of the council, and Mrs. Jan Livingston, Birmingham's college counselor, are two of the guiding forces in the Academic Council's pursuit of better education.

The 1986 Birmingham Play Production cast performed one of its most powerful plays in recent memory: Equus by Peter Shaffer. The story begins in a psychiatric hospital, where Alan Strang, a young troubled boy, is under the care of Dr. Martin Dysart, a talented psychiatrist who has his own personal conflicts. It takes some time for Dysart to get through to Alan, but eventually the boy opens up. The audience sees the tragic story of Alan Strang materialize, how he was divided between two totally different worlds-his father's, an disciplined world. But neither of them can cope with their son's breakdown. Dr. Dysart helps Alan to talk about the build-up of a pseudo-religious worship of horses, and Alan acts out his secret riding of the horses, shockingly fervent to both Dysart and the results of the healing process will be, for he too is held by the reigns in his mind.

PLAY PRODUCTION

The Spring Drama production was Merton of the Movies. A rollicking comedy about a young man, Merton Gill, who aspires to go into silent films as a matinee idol. The entire play takes place during the early 1920's when young Hollywood proved to be a labyrinth of dreams, deceptions, and successes to many, including the Illinois-born Merton. Merton refuses to act in comedies; he desires only to be a "serious" actor. When he is tricked into starring in a "despised" comedy film, the results are hilarious, romantic, and successful. The play illustrates that "Hollywood is a land of dreams and a land of illusions."

The 1986-87 Courier Staff prides itself on producing a factual and interesting account of events that occur at Birmingham High. This past school year The Courier, Birmingham High School's newspaper, produced many solid and sometimes controversial editions.

The Courier provides the student body with a more in-depth look at the various activities and issues that affect the school. They made it their business to give the opinions of the general student body a place to be voiced. The Courier also tries to encourage the revision of certain school policies which it believes to have flaws.

The Courier features a staff of many talented veteran writers. They successfully report the news concerning Birmingham and offer a variety of interesting feature articles. Each monthly issue also publishes timely editorials that present school-related problems along with possible solutions.

This has been a transitional year for The Courier in that most of the authority has been shifted from the sponsor to the students. With the addition of two Apple Macintosh computers, the new look of The Courier was more timely and efficient.

Under the watchful eyes of advisor Sid Oring and the skillful leadership of Editor-in-Chief Josh Wilner, The Courier set new standards in high school journalism.

ACADEMIC DECATHLON

The purpose of the Academic Decathlon is to expand the horizons of dedicated students who are willing to put forth the time and effort to achieve academic excellence. Birmingham High's Academic Decathlon team competed on November 15, 1986, against 51 other schools in such topics as essay writing, mathematics, natural science, social science, fine arts, speech, interviews, economics, language and literature, and the pressure-packed Super Quiz. As a result of hard work during the first ten week of school and lots of outside work, the team brought home two gold medals in essay writing and speech. Through the guidance of Mrs. Williams and the perseverance of the Academic Decathlon students, they became best friends and had fun learning new things. Congratulations to Birmingham High's Academic Decathlon Super Team!

The new Science Fiction & Fantasy Club has introduced the wonder and excitement of science fiction and fantasy literature, from great authors like Asimov, Bradbury, Clarke, Heinlen, Hogan, McCaffrey, and Niven, to the students at BHS. They have become very involved in school activities, which is an admirable quality in any campus club. Science Fiction & Fantasy is sponsored by Ms. Barbara Stawski, and commanded by President Matthew Savalas and Vice President Thor White. We hope they trek through the Birmingham galaxy for many years to come.

This club has increased Birmingham's prestige among Los Angeles high schools by involving the other students in their aviation genius. We certainly appreciate the fascinating facts and timely assistance put forth by the Birmingham Science Club.

SPEECH AND DEBATE CLUB

The Birmingham Speech and Debate Club has competed in over 20 tournaments this year, including Student Congress, Varsity I. E.'s, and the State Qualifying Debate. They have done magnificently! President David Gregory, Vice President Michael Geibelson, Secretary Andy Fink, and Treasurer Brian Winestock head the Tuesday meetings, where skills from public communications to writing and interpreting original speeches are discussed. The Speech and Debate Club will continue its proud winning tradition for many years to come.

WINNING ORIGINAL SPEECHES

David Zeiden, Original Advocacy Trophy winner.

"The day after Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination, Robert Kennedy said:

'The victims of violence are Black and White, rich and poor, young and old, famous and unknown. They are most important of all human beings, who other human beings loved and needed. No one, no matter where he lives or what he does, can be certain who next will suffer from some senseless act of bloodshed. And yet it goes on, and on, and on in this country of ours. Why?'

"Two months later, that some tragic question must be raised again, when the man who spoke these words was assassinated it is for us to answer. This bill will resolve that the next generation of Americans will not have to witness this massacre and ask, 'Why?' "

Excerpt from Civil Rights speech:

"Civil Rights has advanced enormously since my parents and ancestors were my age; nevertheless, there is still a long way to go. Discrimination still occurs in our land of freedom. When all discrimination is abolished and everyone is equal, the Constitution will have lived up to its fullest potential. Could a member of racial minority be elected the next President of the United States? The dream lives on."

Future Business Leaders of America, led by President Jeff Edeistein, Vice Presidents Michael Rabin and Sheira Ariel, Treasurer Kristin Smith, Historian Adam Hand, and Parliamentarian Marc Evensen, is an active club made up of students who wish to have business experiences during high school.

As part of a nationwide organization, the prestigious Birmingham F.B.L.A. chapter participates in numerous business conventions in exotic places like Fresno. To relieve the tension of hard work, they often visit major Los Angeles amusement parks like Knotts Berry Farm and Disneyland.

THE DUPREES

The Duprees promote school spirit and activities around school. They participate in all events, such as Homecoming, Octoberfest, and dances for the student body. The Duprees try to unify, induce spirited behavior, and set an example for other students and other clubs through leadership in school activities and sports events. They urge younger students to become involved in all extracurricular aspects of Birmingham High.

The Duprees, sponsored by Mr. Lou Ramirez, are lead by President Stephanie Leveton and Vice President Cathy Bridge.

As one member stated, "We are proud of our club and our reputation as being 'Frat Packers'".

THE FURIES

The Furies are one of the most liberal social clubs at Birmingham. They allow both men and women to join their club. This co-ed spirit shows in their leadership: Presidents Amy Maeda, Paul Weitzman, and Jeff Wilson; Vice Presidents Jeff Greenbaum and Dionne Federson; Commissioners of Business Staci Rios and Christine Maskobi; and Parliamentarians Dee Brown and George Moussa. They have been very successful in school activities like Octoberfest, the Senior Dinner, and lunchtime bake sales. This is the Furies' third year on the BHS campus, and if winning the Most Popular Award for their Homecoming float is any sign, they're at the start of a very successful future.

The club's leaders, President Babak Shemirani, Vice President Patrick Wilson, Treasurer Tenita Bennett, and Secretary Monica Bravo, contributed much to the understanding of German culture and customs to the students at BHS. Most of its members are from sponsor Renate Mahla's German classes. The German Club is just one more way Birmingham shows its international diversity.

Rolling Stone

A circular logo with a hand-drawn, textured border. Inside the circle, the letters "BHS" are written in a bold, blocky font at the top, and the word "BRAVES" is written in a similar font below it.The words "Auto graphs" are written in a large, bubbly, 3D-style font. A pencil is drawn diagonally across the word "graphs", with its eraser at the top right and its sharp lead tip at the bottom left. The entire graphic is enclosed in a simple rectangular border.

DUCKY BOYS

As you thumb through the 1987 Tomahawk, we hope that you feel as if you are thumbing through a real magazine. It took a lot of hard work, blood, sweat, and overtime to complete this book. But it was a labor of love. Everyone on the staff contributed to Volume 33, putting in many hours of trial and error, and, finally, we completed an album that's worth cherishing forever.

This could not have been accomplished without the guidance of one man - Mr. Lew Berns. In his role as our wonderful advisor, we had to put up with lots of garbage from the staff, push us to the limits for deadlines, and encourage us to do our best on each page. We were very scared of losing him this year due to funding complications, but, once again, he came through for us.

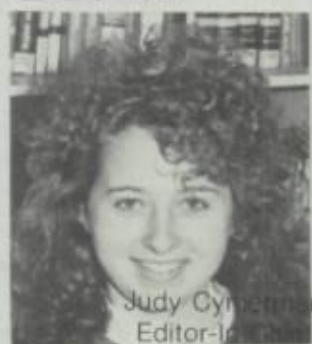

We love you, Mr. Berns. Thanks for everything.

This year has been filled with learning, not only to get along with one another, but learning not to flake on those who rely on us. In other words, responsibility and perseverance to achieve success in our goals and in what life has to offer us.

We hope that, as you leaf through this yearbook, you feel the exhilaration and variety of Birmingham Life as we have tried to capture it in this journal of Birmingham High School.

Enjoy! - J.C./R.W.L.

IN MEMORY OF
SHARON ELIZABETH BARNETT

"THE THING IS WHAT WE REALLY MEAN,
YOURS ARE THE SWEETEST
EYES WE'VE EVER SEEN.
AND THE SUN'S BEEN

QUITE KIND WHILE WE WROTE THIS SONG,
IT'S FOR PEOPLE LIKE YOU THAT KEEP IT TURNED ON.

2/27/71 - 12/28/86

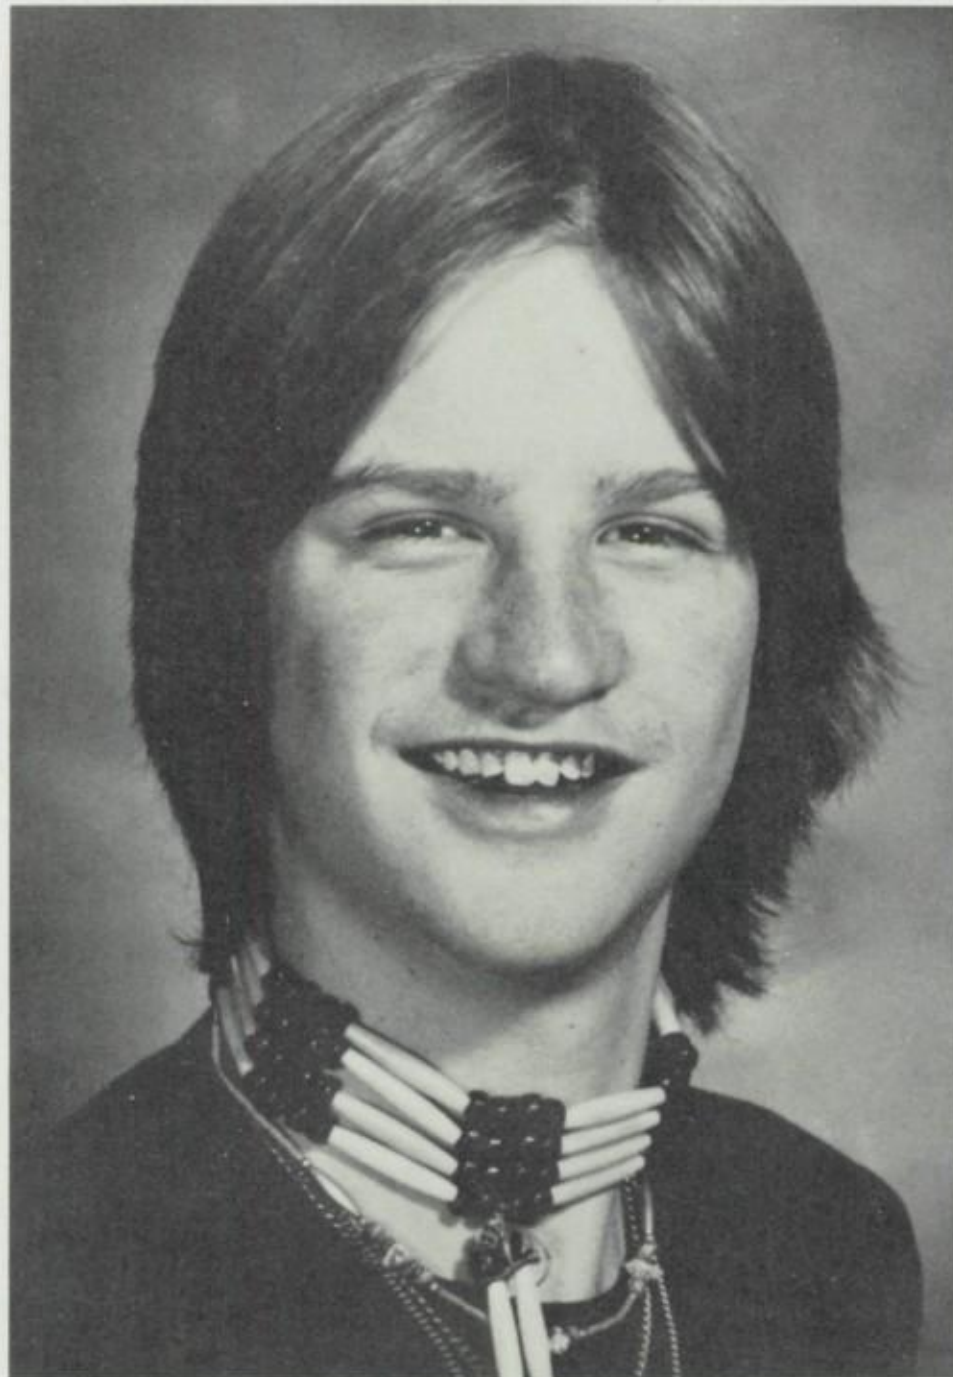

WE KNOW IT'S NOT MUCH BUT IT'S THE BEST WE CAN DO,
OUR GIFT IS OUR SONG AND THIS ONE'S FOR YOU.
AND YOU CAN TELL EVERYBODY THIS IS YOUR SONG. IT MAY BE QUITE SIMPLE BUT, NOW THAT YOU'RE GONE, WE HOPE YOU DON'T MIND, WE HOPE YOU DON'T MIND THAT WE PUT DOWN WORDS. HOW WONDERFUL LIFE WAS-WHILE YOU WERE IN OUR WORLD."

ELTON JOHN

IN MEMORY OF

ERIC T. CHRISTENSON

"A lot of you probably remember Eric. He was always hanging around Room 65. He was thin, had long blond hair, and wore army clothes. His lips, while usually smiling, were often blue because he had a bad heart and his blood was not getting enough oxygen. This caused him to feel the cold more intensely, so you usually did not see him at school on cold windy days.

"He talked softly, was very observant, and walked around silently. He used to enjoy walking up to a person so quietly that they wouldn't know he was there, until they looked up. He admired the American Indian and his ability to stalk and hunt silently. Eric studied everything he could about them and tried to copy their ways.

"Eric wanted to be an artist more than anything else and, when he could, took art classes several hours a day every semester. If desire could make one an artist, he would have been a Rembrandt, or in his case, a Walt Disney. He had admired Walt Disney Studios above all things. His ambition was to be a Disney animator, almost from the day he was born, across the street from the entrance to Disney's Studios in Burbank.

"Because of his interest in cartooning, which was to have been his life's work, a section on cartooning and animation is being started in our school library, in honor of his memory.

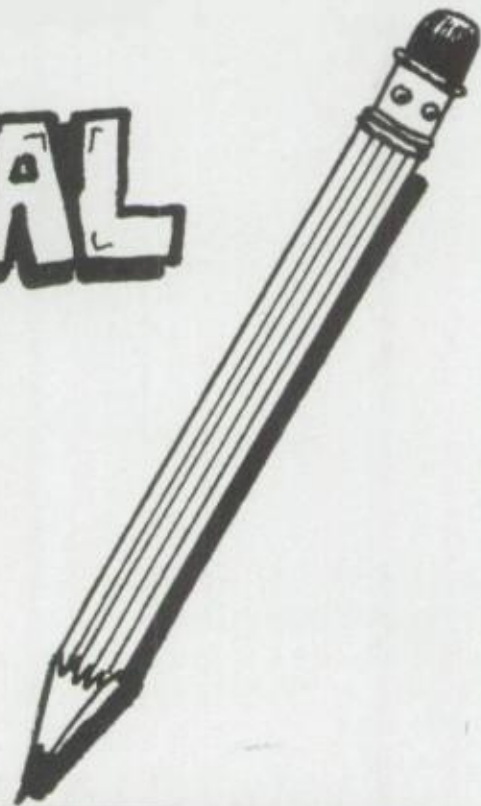

"Now Eric is buried on a hill overlooking his beloved Disney's Studios. He will be missed here at school, especially around Room 65." - George Edwards
